The Laws

Do not be violent. That is, don't go around hitting people for no good reason.

Do not cheat other people, steal from others, or willfully cause harm to other people's stuff.

If you are paid to do a job, do it. If someone does a job for you, pay them a fair wage.

Everyone in a family should live up to their role in the family. Parents should keep care of their children, and children should help their parents.
